AP LIT FINAL PROJECT RUBRIC

Each core competency is worth 10 points. You should demonstrate observable success in each to receive full points. Moments where success may be displayed are during workshop time, in the final product itself, in conferences with the instructor, or during the final presentation. If you expect a high score, make sure to demonstrate these qualities consistently.

Core Competency	Description
#1 INDEPENDENCE In class	Problems are addressed and solved. Deadlines are responsibly met. Time is managed effectively. Ability to stay focused is observable. Willingness and ability to seek expert mentorship from adults and peers is evidenced.
#2 DESIGN THINKING In class, exam	Project goes through prototyping, feedback, and revision before finalization. True responses to a variety of feedback are shown in iteration. Project serves a real need and audience. Student embraces the idea of writing and creating as an ever-changing process, and can demonstrate understanding of that process.
#3 PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION In class, exam	When interacting with peers and adults, a high level of courtesy is shown. Timely, respectful requests are made before pursuing resources provided by a mentor or supporter. Student can effectively verbalize areas of success and struggle. Ability to keep accurate records of progress is evidenced. Student can market themselves as a writer in a professional fashion.
#4 INTEGRITY In class, exam, product	A tireless work ethic is demonstrated during in-class work time. An honest effort to challenge oneself, to reach above and beyond, is observable in the recordkeeping and final product. Student shows a continuous commitment to quality of performance.

#5 INNOVATION Product	Product shows independent thought process and creativity. A unique approach or variation is applied to the topic. Even if the student echoes or builds upon something already in existence, a unique/new contribution is offered because of this particular project.
#6 WRITING PROFICIENCY Product	Submitted work is of respectable, professional quality. Attention is paid to grammatical correctness, as well as to conventions of the chosen genre. Structure serves the purpose of the text well. The tone is fitting for the intended audience. Resulting writing is effective and compelling.
#7 PUBLICATION Product	The final product appears professional. Care has been taken to address any and all formating or functionality issues, and to create an attractive, polished appearance in the final product.
